

Compressed Pay Period (CPP) Pilot Supervisor Survey Summary

Number of Supervisors surveyed:	103
Number of Supervisors who said participants were able to complete all assigned duties	94
Number of Supervisors who said there were program benefits from employees being in the CPP program	56
Number of Supervisors who said there was some adverse program impact	20
Number of Supervisors who said there were problems supervising CPP employees	15
Number of Supervisors who said their supervisory work load increased	33
Number of Supervisors who said the program affected participants productivity	32
Number of Supervisors who said the effect was positive	28
Number of Supervisors who said they noticed a change in the participants morale	65
Number of Supervisors who said the change was positive	63
Number of Supervisors who said there was some impact on non-participating employees	20
Number of Supervisors who said the impact was positive	6
Number of Supervisors who said they would benefit from additional CPP training	16
Number of Supervisors who said they would consider other employees for participation if the program became permanent	95